

Effective Outdoor Place-based Education

Effective outdoor learning activities must be specifically linked to learning standards across the curriculum.

Effective outdoor learning activities must be associated with the creation, use and maintenance of a habitat that is native to Missouri and restores the natural systems that were in place before the land was developed.

Effective outdoor learning activities can only be sustained by the mutual support and enjoyment of the students, school staff, families, neighbors, local business and civic leaders.

Source: Maryland Association for Environmental and Effective outdoor Education
<http://www.maeoe.org/habitat/qualities/>